ARIZONA.

A Series of Letters From Arizona.—No. 1.

[From our own correspondent.]

TUCSON, ARIZONA, October 8th.

Editor Gazette:—Arizona Territory has come to occupy so prominent a place in the public eye of the Pacific Coast that I came to think the other day perhaps a few items regarding its present condition would not be uninteresting to your many readers. For years the Territory has been, until lately, an almost unknown land, and when thought of was considered only a dreary waste of desert, the fit habitation of the murderous, cruel and vindictive Apache, and where every bush had a thorn and every animal a sting. Since the cessation of Indian hostilities, however, prospectors, those hardy and progressive men who go ahead and in the midst of almost insurmountable difficulties open up new lands to civilization, have freely wandered over our mountains and made discoveries so rich and extensive that many now believe that Arizona is certain to fulfil the destiny Humboldt propheticly gave to it—"the source of the future silver and gold supply of the world." As the news of new mine after new mine being discovered went abroad, the press, ever anxious to place something at once startling and interestingly fresh before the public, sent its minions in swarms to Arizona. Not a speculator started hitherward to again get wealth but was importuned to give items to his editorial friends; not a youth who left his quiet country home, overflowing with hope and trust, for the new wonder land but what made promise to send soon to his country paper full particulars of Arizona life and prospects; and not a simpleton who felt called upon to "write a book" but, after living the life of a tramp hereaway for a year or more, made sure to prepare for a confiding public a rehash of old newspaper tales. These all, added to the army of regular correspondents sent out by journals of East and West, have at length brought much press attention to Arizona. It is highly amusing to read report after report, diverse and generally incorrect in part, by these new comers. Some picture a heaven on earth, make the valleys teem with grains and fruits of all climes and the mountain's glens with wealth; others only see the desert and write but of the horned toad, lizard, tarantula and Mexican. Some see here the promised land of paradise and others a section of Pluto's dominions sent up to earth so that a few mortals can get accustomed, somewhat, to the life hereafter.

Since my stay here I have traveled over the greater portion of the inhabited part of the Territory, and have also paid attention to the ideas of men whose ideas are valuable—and here let me say that when Arizona is spoken of the whole Territory is never considered. The entire northern section, extending from the Utah line to the border of the black mesa or Mogallen mountain, and occupying at least two-fifths of its area, consists of the vast canyons of the Colorado river and its tributaries, and great pine forests, at present of no use and almost uninhabited. Prescott, therefore, instead of being near the centre of trade and population is really on the extreme northern edge, much nearer, in fact, than Tucson is to the southern, and by Arizona is meant, leaving out the northern part of Mohave county which borders on Nevada, only that tract of country south of the Mogallen mountains, extending from the Colorado river on the west to the line of New Mexico on the east. In this inhabited area are found all the requirements for a great and wealthy commonwealth. Here are valleys sufficiently large and fertile to produce abundance of all food for any population the Territory will ever have. Arizona, by-the-way, has ever been self-sustaining in this regard. Great plains covered constantly with nutritious grasses, able to support immense flocks of sheep and droves of cattle, old records prove that they once were swarming with stock owned by missions; large forests of timber fit for building or for fuel, and in every mountain chain mines of gold, silver, copper or lead, have been found. With all these advantages the question naturally arises, why has not the Territory been settled long ago? The answer is readily at hand. Until the past four or five years the Apache Indians, the most venomous and cruel of any on the continent, had control so that not only property but life was unsafe even a few miles from the largest towns, and then means of transportation were meagre and expensive, and not a single comfort to be found on the long stretches of desert found on every road. Now however the country is being settled rapidly and I doubt if there is to-day such another developing and progressive section in the United States. In 1870 the census gave a population of but 9000, while last year, the census grossly exaggerated in some parts no doubt contained over 30,000 names and the next will be 40,000.

Walter Chapin, a Jerseyman sixty five years of age, is at Ticonderoga, engaged in his fifth attempt to find a box containing $85,000 in specie, which he claims was hidden at Osmand's bay in 1759 by a French paymaster who had to desert the Montcalm. He settled the precise spot by use of old charts and a divining rod, and at a depth of fifteen feet struck upon something of wood and iron which he believes to be the box. He has mortgaged his farm and put all the proceeds into his search, so that it is a case of life and death with him.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

SECOND DAY.

At the Track—An Exciting Contest.

Lulu, Jewess, Muggins and Honey Lake Chief came to the score for the 2:50 contest and sold in the pools in the order named. After scoring for some time they got off even and the heat was an exciting one between Lulu and Jewess, these two coming under the score neck and neck. Time 2:47½. Lulu won the heat, Jewess second, Muggins third, Honey Lake Chief fourth.

For the second heat pools sold in the same ratio. The start was a very poor one, Muggins being four lengths behind. Muggins surprised and delighted the crowd by winning the heat; time 2:49½. Lulu second, Honey Lake Chief third, Jewess fourth.

After this heat the boys thought it advisable to hedge and the pools showed as follows: Field $20, Lulu $8, Jewess $8.

For the third heat there was practically little contest Muggins taking the lead and keeping it throughout, winning the heat easily in 2:46½. The Field was a big favorite throughout after running the second heat. The fourth heat and race he won easily in 2:44½. Considerable money changed hands on the race as the "alick" one gained the victory.

The horses were called for the 2:27 class and Gov. Stanford, Dirigo and Sweet Briar, responded to the call. This race comes too late for publication.

Shooting Tournament.

The second day's pigeon shooting opened at 9 A. M. First match, sweep-stake to the two best scores at five single rises at 26 yards. Entrance $10. 25 per cent. deducted for the birds. The purse divided, one-half the money and a pair of opera, field and marine glasses, value $40, presented by M. M. Fredrick, jeweler, Virginia, to the best score. (Not class shooting.)

F. C. Bishop was chosen referee and B. W. Loomis scorer. The following gentlemen contested for the two prizes:

Thos. Diamond, Gold Hill, 11111
—5.
Dr. Carver, San Francisco, 1111
0-4.
W. D. C. Gibson, Gold Hill, 110
11-4.
Ben. Robinson, Virginia City, 111
11-5.
Chas. B. Smith, Stockton, 11111
—5.
J. S. Kaneen, Virginia City, 1111
1-5.
A. C. Pratt, Genoa, 11111+5
H. G. Parker, Carson, 11101-4.
J. H. McCaulley, Gold Hill, 1101
1-4.

As will be seen by the score there was a tie, which was shot for at 31 yards, with the following results:

Thos. Diamond, 11001-3
Benj. Robinson, 10100-2
Chas. Smith, 11011-4
J. S. Kaneen, 01111-4
A. C. Pratt, 11011-4

A second tie between Smith, Kaneen and Pratt at the same distance resulted in Pratt's getting the 1st prize and Kaneen the second prize.

Shooting immediately commenced in match No. 3. Dr. Carver was chosen referee, Smith and Knox judges.

Contestants: W. D. C. Gibson, Gold Hill; F. C. Bishop, Va. City; Thos. Cocking, Va. City; C. H. Stoddard, Reno; Dr. Schnaber, Gold Hill; M. Gill, Va. City; Thos. Diamond, Gold Hill; A. C. Pratt, Genoa; Jas. Rock, Va. City; B. Robinson, Va. City; J. McCaulley, Gold Hill; J. S. Kaneen, Va. City; R. W. and H. G. Parker, Carson. Only half the shooting was done for this match. The bell rang for the races, thus leaving the match to be finished to-morrow. There was greater interest taken to-day in the pigeon shooting than on yesterday. The shots were good with few exceptions. Charley Stoddard of Reno, made one of the best shots which was made during the day. Kaneen is the best retriever of birds, each man retrieves his own birds. The pigeons are released from H & T traps placed 5 yards apart. The Sect. of the Society telegraphed this morning for 50 doz. more pigeons.

Exhibits at the Pavilion.

G. W. Cunningham, raisins.
Jose Salinas, Virginia city, center table made of different woods.
L. P. Whiting, Milford, best display of apples.
S. F. Hoole & Co., medicines, perfumery and toilet articles of Nevada manufacture.

Cohn & Isaacs, Derby underwear; swansdown flannel underwear; cashmere underwear; flannel White House shirts; Andes shirts; honey-comb underwear; Cartwright & Warner's underwear; the Cheviot shirt, and among other articles, the Hayes underwear; XXX beaver overcoats, satin lined; diagonal goods; boys overcoats. The display of Cohn & Isaacs is very fine.

Monet & Rapp, of Steamboat Springs, some fine specimens of sulphur and cinnabar.

J. L. McFarlin, samples of wheels also one or two fine top buggies.

M. J. Smith, special premium sulky.

B. B. Norton, corn in ear.

Breuner, of Sac., makes a large and elegant display of furniture, bedding, bookcase, etc.

Mrs. Julia Prescott has a magnificent display of beautiful as well as costly bonnets, hats, trimmings, cloaks, dresses, etc.

H. Ward places on exhibition a patent spring bed and mattress, also a large number of mats, lace curtains, etc.

The California Manufacturing Co., of Sacramento, 1 family carriage, 2 top buggies and 1 open buggy.

Jottings.

A public auction of fine horses will take place at Morton's field, adjoining the State Fair grounds, on Saturday next. See advertisement.

The stock parade to-day at the Fair grounds was very fine and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The weather is all that could be asked for and a large attendance was at the grounds. This afternoon there were probably 5,000 people present.

We find correspondence, advertisement, and important telegrams so numerous to-day, that our space is not sufficient for the customary editorial matter.

Anyone who is curious in regard to Arizona should read and keep the letter published to-day, it is one of a series which will we think excel any letters ever written from that region.

A large attendance is noticeable from Wadsworth, Verdi and Washoe Valley. Come up and see us, gents, we have a little newspaper yarn to tell you.

The foreman of engine company No. 1, requests us to say that the members of that Co. will report at their quarters Thursday morning at 8:30 promptly. The object of the call is for engine practice.

Remember that on Friday night the State Fair ball will be given at Smith's Academy of Music. Prof. Varney will furnish the music which will consist of 6 pieces. It will be one of the grandest balls ever given in Reno. Tickets $5.

The Reno Saving Bank and D. A. Bender & Co., will remain closed in the afternoon from 1 to 5 P. M., and be open from 5 to 6. This arrangement will continue during the Fair.

We are anxious to accommodate all of our friends and for that reason ask them to bring in their work as early as possible. It becomes irksome after a while this thing of being followed by nine men at once.

The pavilion presents a much finer appearance than it did last year. The entry clerks are kept very busy. Many visited the pavilion last evening.

Remember the Panorama of the Apocalypse at the Baptist Church to-night. Admission 50 cents.

COURTEOUS.—We found yesterday the name of C. C. Biles on our anvil. Mr. Biles is President of the Humboldt Agricultural Association, and meets our views in regard to courtesy and friendship.

SEASON TICKET.—Parties who desire more than one entrance per day on season tickets should notify the gate keeper. It will be seen at a glance that this is for the purpose of preventing an improper use of such tickets, and all concerned will please take notice.

GRAND BALL.—To-morrow evening Mr. J. W. Scott gives one of his enjoyable parties at Kimball's Hall. He will be assisted by Prof. Frank's orchestra of San Francisco, thus making a band of 9 pieces of music. Dancing will commence at 10 o'clock and continue until daylight if the dancers chose to dance that long. The hall is in excellent condition and with a large orchestra should draw a large number. Scott is a first class caller and knows how to manage and make all arrangements for a first class party. Tickets $2 for gentleman and lady.

MINSTRELS.—The New Orleans Minstrels performed to a good house last night. This evening the same troupe appear at the Opera House, on Virginia street, with an entire change of programme. This company consists of twenty star performers and give an entertainment which will make one laugh as he never did before.

BARNETT BROS.—Our readers will find something of special interest in our ad. columns to-day. Barnett Bros., long and favorably known in our midst as merchants, call the attention of the public to their very large stock of assorted goods of every description and variety, and purchased under most favorable terms. Call and examine these gentlemen's dry and furnishing goods, men's and boy's clothing, etc.

CORRESPONDENCE.—On our editorial page will be found the first of a series of letters, which will describe during their course the resources of Arizona and the characteristics of its people, towns, and growth will receive attention. Our correspondent is an able writer and an observant man. We can vouch for his assertions without hesitation.

DISTRICT COURT.—The case of Catherine Foley vs. Charles Russel came up for hearing, a jury was waived, two witnesses examined and judgment rendered in favor of plaintiff.

In the case of J. Baum & Co. vs. H. M. Cohn, the defendant not appearing, the case went by default, and judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff.

THE MILE AND REPEAT YESTERDAY.

—Sooner, Rafael and Ned Smith came to the score yesterday afternoon and were given an even start without trouble. Rafael was a big favorite and the knowing ones purchased him freely. The first heat made a great many believe there was something rotten afloat and the judges very properly changed riders, putting Henry Weldon on Sooner. Sooner came in sooner than any body the second heat and Rafael was left—outside the distance flag. The third heat and race was easily won by Sooner and the boys felt very badly over it. Time 1:49½, 1:50.

Beware of the slate maker's bow wow. You will find the most dangerous slates behind the bars.

FOR SALE.—Parties desiring a home in Reno will do well to read the following offer: One and one fourth acres of ground on Virginia street, well fenced, seeded to grass, and stocked with fruit and ornamental trees. Title perfect, no encumbrance. On the above land is a house one and a half stories, containing six rooms and closets, hard finished above and below. There is also on the above land ample barn grainaries, and harness rooms for the accommodation of four horses. The entire property is offered for $3000. One third to be paid down and the balance in two annual payments at one per cent. per month. Enquire at this office immediately.

Go and see the minstrels at the Opera House to-night. Fun for the million.

THE PRESS.—The press was represented yesterday by F. D. Atherton of the Pacific Rural Press; H. B. Loomis of the Enterprise; A. C. Pratt of Genoa News; R. P. Chapin, for the Turf, Field and Farm, and one other who did not show up in the stand. To-day E. J. Parkinson of the Nevada Tribune, and a representative of the Spirit of the Times, put in an appearance.

The Esmeralda Herald and Bodie Standard have reached us. Like their proprietor, Frank Kenyon, these papers are vigorous and full of business for the new camps.

E. Chielovich is in town.

PENMANSHIP.—Who does not admire good penmanship? And how many wonder why it is that they cannot write well, when seeing handsome specimens of writing. It is conceded that much is owing to the pen used, and we can confidently recommend the COMBINATION PENS made by Joseph Mason, London, as among the very best. By sending $1.50 in currency to H. S. Crocker & Co., Sacramento, you can have one gross of these pens sent you by mail, postage paid. 9-29 1md&w
